

Clearly it is a difficult piece, but it was carefully and extensively prepared by the NCRV Vocal Ensemble under its conductor, Marinus Voorberg, with the "Cantasona" children's choir from Boxtel. Indeed the children, somewhat favoured by the church acoustics, made a very strong impression, sounding at times very much as Britten has since taught us children can sound.